

AN INVITATION TO THE DISCIPLESHIP GROUP

Jane

John and I are here to tell you about the Discipleship Group that's taken root here at Calvary. We gather on the third Thursday of every month, at 7:15 pm, at a member's home, or at Church. The Group's aim is to become, and to get better at being disciples of Jesus.

John

During our two hours together we share our homes and food, our prayers, joys, and concerns, our insights and experiences - the Bible - and its relevance to the other books we read together - all these we share with each other - asking God's blessing on them.

This is our prayer.

Jane

We believe the Holy Spirit is in our hearts, minds, and souls every second of our lives.

This is our prayer.

John

We believe that in building closer relationships with each other we are becoming closer to our Creator, to our Savior Jesus, and to the Holy Spirit.

This is our prayer.

Jane

We believe that we have been made to care, challenge, and support; to confide, confess, and forgive; to laugh, cry and watch over each other, as we grow, together.¹

This is our prayer.

John

We believe that our homes, like our Church, become sacred places; that the food we share and eat is blessed, and that all this is a thanks offering we make to each other - in Jesus' name.

This is our prayer.

Jane

Being a part of this Discipleship Group has personally awakened John and I to the Spirit's presence and direction in our lives.

We'd be pleased if you would join us. Our next Gathering is on Thursday evening, September 20th at 7:15 pm.

John

If you would like to join us, or have questions or comments, talk with us right here after Jane plays {our postlude.} Thanks very much.

¹Gilbert Bilezikian, a proponent of small groups, cited in "Why Small Groups", by Carolyn Teketa; Smallgroups.com June 2017